HISTORY OF THIRD CAVALRY.

The Third Regiment of Cavalry was organized at Camp Butler, Illinois, by Colonel E. A. Carr, in August, 1861.

The Regiment moved to St. Louis, Missouri, September 25th. October 1st, moved up the Missouri river, to Jefferson City, and, thence, marched to Warsaw, arriving, October 11th. On 23d, marched toward Springfield, Missouri, in Colonel Carr's Brigade, Brigadier General Asboth's Division. On November 2d, General Hunter took command of the Army. November 13th, the First and Second Battalions moved, with the army, on Rolla, Missouri. The Third Battalion, Major Ruggles commanding, remained with Siegel's Division, and was the last to leave Springfield.

Arriving at Rolla, November 19th, the Regiment remained until December 29th, when it moved in the advance of General Curtis' army, for the south-west.

On February 11th, the Regiment, in Carr's Division, moved to Marshfield, and, on 13th, to near Springfield, where the Third Cavalry fought the first engagement, and won the first victory of Curtis' campaign.

On February 14th, 1862, occupied Springfield, Missouri. On 15th, came up with Price's retreating army at Crane creek, capturing some prisoners. On 18th, at Sugar creek, Arkansas, the Third Battalion participated in a cavalry charge, routing the enemy. On 20th, the Second Battalion marched to Cross Hollows, and, on March 5th, fell back to Pea Ridge. On the 6th, the First and Third Battalions marched with Colonel Vandever's Brigade, from Huntsville, 48 miles. On the 7th, the First and Third Battalions, in Dodge's Brigade, and the Second, in Vandever's, were engaged all day, losing 10 killed, and 40 wounded. March 19th, moved to Keetsville. Lieutenant Colonel McCrillis and Major Hubbard arrived, and went on duty. April 10th, arrived at Forsyth. On 29th, moved to West Plains, and, May 1st, started for Batesville, arriving on 3d.

On May 14th, 1862, moved to Little Red river. On 25th, in crossing White river, Captain McLelland, and 5 men, were drowned. On June 4th, the Regiment fell back to Fairview. On 7th, Captain Sparks, with 66 men, was surrounded by 300 of the enemy's cavalry, and cut his way out, losing 4 wounded, and 4 prisoners.

Returned to Batesville, on the 11th. June 11th, marched to Jacksonport. July 5th, moved, with the army, for Helena, where it arrived on the 15th, and went into camp. During the stay at this point, detachments of the Regiment were sent on scouts and expeditions, to different places, including Captain Kirkbridge's raid to St. Francis river, and 5 companies, with General Hovey's raid to Grenada, Mississippi.

December 23d, 1862, 6 companies, B, C, D, H, I and L, Captain Kirkbridge commanding, embarked for Vicksburg, under Major General W. T. Sherman. Companies E and G were on duty, with General Carr, at St. Louis. Companies A, K, F and M, Captain Carnahan commanding, reported to Brigadier General Steele, at the mouth of the Yazoo river.

At Chickasaw Bayou, the Regiment was detailed as pickets and escorts, for commanding generals, and did good service in the disastrous attack on Vicksburg—Companies A, K, L and M being the last to embark, after the battle.

In the spring of 1863, Colonel McCrillis, with a battalion, moved to Memphis, leaving Company L, as escort to Major General McClelland, and Captain Carnahan, with Companies A, G, K and E, with Brigadier General P. J. Osterhaus, and the Thirteenth Corps. This Battalion took part in the battles of Port Gibson, Champion Hills, Black River Bridge, and the siege of Vicksburg. August 16th, 1863, reporting to Major General N. P. Banks, was assigned to Brigadier General Lee's Cavalry Division, and took part in the Western Louisiana Campaign, and at Vermilionville, Opelousas, and Carrion Crow Bayou.

In December, 1864, Major O'Connor took command of the Battalion, and it moved to Port Hudson, and, thence, to Memphis, Tennessee, rejoining the Regiment. The Regiment had, meantime, participated in the battles of Tupelo, Okolona, and Guntown, Mississippi.

During the month of July, a large portion of the Regiment re-enlisted as veterans. The non-veterans, under Major O'Connor, were stationed, as garrison, at Germantown, Tennessee.

In July, 1864, a portion of the Regiment, Captain Carnahan commanding, went on a scout, through Western Kentucky. August 21st, the Regiment took part in repulsing General N. B. Forrest, in his attack on Memphis.

August 24th, the non-veterans having been mustered out, the veterans were consolidated into a battalion of 6 companies, and Captain Carnahan, promoted to Lieutenant Colonel.

On September 27th, left Memphis. Crossed the Tennessee at Clifton, and confronted Hood's army. Fell back, skirmishing, and took part in the battles of Lawrenceburg, Spring Hill, Campbellsville and Franklin. On December 15th, in First Brigade, Fifth Division, Brigadier General Hatch commanding, was on the right of the army when it turned the enemy's left, and was first in the enemy's works. In January 1865, the enemy having been driven across the Tennessee, the cavalry, under General Wilson, camped at Gravelly Springs, Alabama, and, in February, moved to Eastport.

In May, moved to St. Louis, Missouri, and, thence, to St. Paul, Minnesota, reporting to Major General Curtis. On July 4th, started on an Indian expedition, over the plains of Minnesota and Dakota—north, to the British lines; south and west, to Devil's Lake and Fort Barthold—and returned to Fort Snelling, October 1st.

Arrived at Springfield, Illinois, October 13th, 1865, and was mustered out of service.

ORDER OF CONSOLIDATION.

HEADQUARTERS CAVALRY DIVISION, DISTRICT OF WEST TENNESSEE,
MEMPHIS, TENNESSEE, May 22, 1865.

Brigadier General W. D. WHIPPLE,

Assistant Adjutant General, Army of the Cumberland:

GENERAL: I have the honor to inclose the Twelfth and Fourth Illinois Volunteer Cavalry organizations, asking your attention to the fact that the consolidation of these regiments, by a singular coincidence, will constitute one regiment, with almost its exact maximum.

I therefore request that the commanding General of the Department will issue an order for its consolidation, under the title of the Twelfth Illinois Regiment Volunteer Cavalry.

Hosbrone's Davis	Colonel.....
Hamilton B. Dox	Lieutenant Colonel.....
A. P. Search	Senior Major
A. H. Longholz	Second Major.....
William Goodrich	First Assistant Surgeon.....
R. J. Foster	Second Assistant Surgeon....
William Crooks	Adjutant.....
John W. Hill	Quartermaster

Company A, 4th Illinois Cavalry, to be designated company G, 12th Illinois Cavalry.

“	B, 4th	“	“	“	“	I, 12th	“
“	C, 4th	“	“	“	“	K, 12th	“
“	D, 4th	“	“	“	“	L, 12th	“
“	E, 4th	“	“	“	“	M, 12th	“

As the two regiments, as organized, would make thirteen companies, I recommend the breaking up of Company G, Twelfth Illinois Cavalry, and the enlisted men to be transferred to other companies, and that Captain R. A. Howk and First Lieutenant C. T. Gossett, be mustered out of service. I ask to have Second Lieutenant E. M. Reynolds, of this company, and Adjutant Henry M. Stahl, of the Twelfth Illinois Cavalry, assigned to vacancies.

This consolidation will sum up forty-five (45) commissioned officers and twelve hundred and forty-two (1242) enlisted men. Discharges to be made under the order to muster-out sick in general hospital, will bring it within the lawful maximum.

I am, General, very respectfully your ob'd't serv't.

B. S. ROBERTS,
Brig. Gen. Vol's. Commanding.

(Indorsement.)

HEADQUARTERS MILITARY DIVISION SOUTHWEST,

HISTORY OF FIFTH CAVALRY.

The Fifth Cavalry Regiment was organized at Camp Butler, Illinois, in November, 1861, and Hall Wilson appointed Colonel.

On February 20th, 1862, moved to Benton Barracks, St. Louis, Missouri. March 3d, moved to Pilot Knob. On 27th, marched to Doniphan, and, arriving April 1st, had a skirmish with the enemy, capturing their camp, killing 3 and taking 7 prisoners. On April 17th, marched to Potosi. On 27th June, started on the march for the Mississippi river. Arrived at Jacksonport, on 29th, and joined General Curtis' army, and arrived at Helena, July 13th.

On October 22d, a forage train was attacked by the enemy, and Lieutenant Elliot, and 78 men, of the Fifth Cavalry, captured, after losing 1 killed and 6 wounded. On January 11th, 1863, the Regiment made an expedition to Duval's Bluff, and, in April, pursued Marmaduke, who was retreating from Missouri.

May 29th, 1863, embarked for Vicksburg, and, June 1st, landed at Snyder's Bluff. June 3d, made a reconnoissance to Mechanicsburg, drove the enemy 10 miles, skirmishing heavily. June 4th, forming a junction with Brigadier General Kimball, who had 2 regiments infantry and 8 pieces of artillery, they attacked the enemy, who was strongly posted, and defeated him. The Regiment lost 1 killed and 7 wounded.

On 6th of July, 1863, moved, with General Sherman's army, Ninth and Fifteenth Corps, toward Jackson. On the 11th, the Cavalry Brigade, Third and Fourth Iowa, Second Wisconsin, and Fifth Illinois Cavalry, Colonel Bussey, of Third Iowa, commanding, went on an expedition to Canton, Mississippi, arriving, after some fighting, on the 17th, and, after destroying the public workshops, railroad, etc., returned to the main army at Jackson.

On August 3d, with Third and Fourth Iowa Cavalry, Colonel E. F. Winslow commanding, the Fifth Cavalry went on an expedition to Grenada, Mississippi. Reached the Mississippi Central, at Durant, and, capturing wagon trains and destroying bridges, etc., it moved up the railroad, to Grenada, where it arrived, August 17th, and, driving the enemy, under Chalmers, from town, effected a junction with Lieutenant Colonel Phelps' command.

The bridge over the Yallahusha being destroyed, the captured rolling stock could not be saved, and 40 engines and 320 cars were burned. On 19th, moved toward Memphis. On 21st, encountered Blythe's rebel cavalry, at the Coldwater, and defeated them—the Regiment losing 1 killed and 5 wounded. Arrived at Memphis on the 22d.

Embarked for Vicksburg, and camped at Black river, August 29th. Remained until May 1st, 1864, when the Regiment moved to Vicksburg. On October 16th, 1863, the Regiment moved, with General McPherson's Seventeenth Corps, to Jackson. Took part in a cavalry charge, at Brownsville, routing the rebel General Wirt Adams, and driving him from his position. The Regiment lost 2 wounded and 1 prisoner.

January, 1st, 1864, many of the Regiment re-enlisted as veterans. On February 3d, moved, with General Sherman's command, on the Meridian raid. March 17th, the veterans were furloughed, returning to the command, May 10th.

On May 27th, Colonel John McConnell arrived, was mustered, and took command of the Regiment.

At this time, 8 companies were dismounted. Companies A, B, C and D, were fully mounted and equipped. On July 1st, this Battalion, with detachments of the Eleventh Illinois Cavalry, Second Wisconsin Cavalry, and Third United States Colored Cavalry, Major Mumford, of Fifth Illinois Cavalry, commanding, with a brigade of infantry, Brigadier General Dennis commanding the expedition, moved to Jackson, with continual skirmishing. On July 5th, on the return march, it was attacked by a large force of the enemy, who was repulsed, after severe fighting. The Battalion lost 1 man killed, and Lieutenant March, and several men, wounded.

On September 27th, with same cavalry, Colonel Osband, Third United States Colored Cavalry, commanding, moved down the river, landing at Port Gibson, and drove the enemy from the place. The Fifth losing 1 man killed. Thence, moved to Natchez; was joined by the Fourth Illinois Cavalry, and a battery, and moved to Tonica Bend. Landed, and moved to Woodville. Surprised and captured a rebel camp. During the night, the enemy advanced, with 3 guns and 600 men. The Fifth Cavalry, and Third United States Cavalry, under Colonel McConnell, charged the enemy the next morning, driving him, in confusion. Returned to Vicksburg, October 11th,

On November 20th, went with an expedition to destroy the Mississippi Central Railroad, over which, supplies were being sent to Hood. It was successful, the command destroying many miles of railroad.

On January 24th, 1865, the Regiment moved to Memphis. Was assigned to First Brigade, Cavalry Division, Colonel E. D. Osband, Third United States Colored Cavalry, commanding. Went on an expedition to Southern Arkansas and Northern Louisiana—returning February 13th.

On March 3d, moved, with an expedition, to Ripley, Mississippi, and, having returned, March 11th, was assigned to guard duty on Memphis and Charleston railroad.

HISTORY OF SIXTH CAVALRY.

This Regiment was organized at Camp Butler, Illinois, November 19th, 1861.

Moved to Shawneetown, Illinois, November 25th, 1861, and encamped until February, 1862, when it moved to Paducah, Kentucky, and, from thence, to Columbus, Kentucky, where the Regiment was divided—5 companies going to Trenton, Tennessee, 5 to Memphis, and 2 companies remaining at Paducah and Bird's Point.

During the spring and summer of 1862, the several detachments operated against the guerrillas, and were in several engagements, the most important of which was Dyersburg, Tennessee, and Olive Branch and Coldwater, Mississippi—in all of which it was successful, with a loss of 2 killed, 6 wounded, and 1 taken prisoner.

Early in the fall of 1862, the detachments were again united, at Memphis, and, November 26th, 1862, formed the advance of General Sherman's Army Corps, in its movements south towards Grenada, Mississippi.

In the latter part of December, it was engaged, with others, in the pursuit of General Van Dorn, after his raid upon Holly Springs, engaging him for 7 consecutive days.

January, 1863, the Regiment returned to Lagrange, Tennessee, where it went into winter quarters, and operated against the numerous bands of partizan rangers. While thus engaged, the Regiment, on one occasion, surprised and routed Richardson's command, near Covington, Tennessee, capturing their entire camp equipage, ammunition, books, papers, etc.

Again, on the 29th March, a detachment of the Regiment was attacked, at midnight, by a superior force, and, although in a manner surprised, by a murderous volley poured into them, while still sleeping, the command repulsed the enemy with effect—Lieutenant Wilson, and 8 men, killed; Lieutenants Baker and Anderson and 29 men, wounded. For the gallantry of the command a special order was issued, by General William S. Smith, complimenting officers and men.

April, 1863, was engaged in the famous expedition which, under Colonel B. H. Grierson, made the tour through Mississippi and Louisiana. In this expedition the Regiment traveled about 800 miles; was engaged a number of times with the enemy; destroyed a vast amount of property, and arrived safely at Baton Rouge, Louisiana, May 2d, 1863, after a continuous march of 17 days.

It operated, under General Banks, in the siege of Port Hudson, in June and July, 1863.

June 2d, 1863, formed a part of Colonel Grierson's expedition to Clinton, Louisiana. June 3d, had a heavy engagement with the enemy, and returned to or near Port Hudson, Louisiana, June 4th, with a loss of 2 killed, 4 wounded and 3 taken prisoners.

Port Hudson having capitulated, July 8th, 1863, the Regiment embarked, July 19th, on board steamers, for Memphis, where it arrived the latter part of July, 1863.

Moved, in August, to Germantown, Tennessee, where it encamped until November 28th, 1863, when it participated in Colonel Hatch's expedition to Covington, Tennessee; then to Lagrange, Tennessee, there encountering General Forrest's forces. Had a sharp engagement, but, discovering the enemy was flanking around in the direction of Moscow, Tennessee, the expedition was ordered to Moscow, where it arrived, December 4th, and had a heavy engagement, the Regiment sustaining a loss of 5 killed, 6 wounded, 20 taken prisoners, and 2 missing. Routed the enemy, and drove them 15 miles, and returned to Germantown, Tennessee, to its old camps, where it remained, operating against Generals Forrest and Chalmers' forces, until February 17th, 1864, when it formed a part of General William S. Smith's expedition to West Point, Mississippi. There had a 3 days' engagement with General Forrest's command and returned to Germantown, where it remained in camp until March 30th, 1864, when the Regiment re-enlisted, as veterans, and ordered to Illinois, on furlough.

May 11th, 1864, furlough having expired, the Regiment rendezvoused at Mattoon, Illinois. Thence, moved to Memphis, Tennessee, where it encamped until July, when 7 companies were ordered to proceed to Collierville, Tennessee, to guard the railroad, until General A. J. Smith's expedition could move on and capture Guntown, Mississippi. Re-joined the Regiment at Memphis. Lieutenant E. Ball was killed, and 2 men captured, while on patrol duty at Collierville.

August, 1864, all the effective part of the Regiment joined in General A. J. Smith's expedition to Oxford, Mississippi. August 13th, had an engagement with General Forrest's command, at Hurricane creek, Mississippi. Casualties, 3 men killed, 6 wounded.

The detachment that was left with the camps, at Memphis, participated in the fight with Forrest, when he made his raid into Memphis. Colonel M. H. Starr was mortally wounded, and 1 man slightly wounded, and Lieutenant Miller and 1 man captured.

The Regiment returned to White Station, Tennessee, where it encamped until the first of October, 1864, when it composed a part of General Hatch's expedition to march through West Tennessee to Clifton, on Tennessee river. There joined General Washburn's expedition of infantry. The infantry disembarked and moved in the direction of Lawrenceburg, Tennessee. General Hatch's Division of Cavalry composed the advance guard. After 2 days' march the infantry returned to Clifton, and the cavalry moved on to Lawrenceburg. Thence, to Savannah, Tennessee, and returned to Clifton, where it remained for a few days.

General Washburn's command of infantry embarked, on steamers, and returned to Memphis. General Hatch's Division of Cavalry moved rapidly to Pulaski, Tennessee, where it encamped for a few days. On its arrival at Pulaski, the Sixth Illinois Cavalry was ordered back on a 2 days' scout, on the Clifton road, and returned to the command at Pulaski. Then marched, with Division, down on Shoal river, near Florence, Alabama, where it skirmished daily with General Hood's forces, while they were crossing the Tennessee river. Fell back, in advance of Hood's command, to Lawrenceburg, where it participated in a 5 hours' engagement with the enemy. Then back to Columbia.

After crossing Duck river the command halted for a few days.

The Sixth Illinois Cavalry was ordered to move rapidly to Shelbyville, Tennessee; then cross Duck river, and move 20 miles down the river and cross at Pike Ford, and return to the command at Columbia. After 2 days' march, arrived at Shelbyville; the third day, at Pike Ford. On arriving there it was ascertained that General Forrest's entire command had crossed the river, 6 miles below, the day before. By this time, the rebel scouts were discovered, in every direction. The Regiment being then almost in the rear of the entire rebel forces, the only chance to escape capture or annihilation was to swim the river and cut its way through, which was done with entire success. After crossing the river, the march was resumed, constantly skirmishing with the rebel patrol and flankers. After marching 18 miles, the Regiment camped so near the enemy that their fires could be seen, and they could be heard chopping wood. Next morning the Regiment resumed the march at one o'clock, and rejoined the command at Franklin, Tennessee, at ten o'clock A. M. Its loss, on expedition, was 8 men missing. The battle of Franklin commenced at one o'clock, same day, in which the Regiment took an active part. After the battle was over, it marched to Nashville, Tennessee, with the command, where it arrived about the last of November, 1864.

December 5th, 1864, the Regiment was ordered on an expedition to Glasgow, Kentucky, and returned to Nashville, December 13th, and, on the 14th, was a part of the cavalry that charged and captured the two first redoubts, and 9 pieces of artillery, and a number of prisoners. This closed the first day's fight. Lost 2 men killed, and 3 wounded.

On the morning of the 15th, the Cavalry was re-mounted, and moved on the right flank, but, finding the country too rough, was compelled to dismount and fight on foot; and, while the infantry engaged the enemy on the left and center, the cavalry engaged it on the right. In the afternoon of the second day's battle, the enemy's lines were broken, and a general stampede ensued. The cavalry was again re-mounted, and ordered in pursuit of the enemy. Had another engagement, about dark, which terminated in the complete rout of the enemy. Pursued them to Florence, Alabama, and there abandoned the pursuit.

Marched, with the command, from Florence, Alabama, to Gravelly Springs, Alabama, where it encamped until February, 1865. Then moved to Eastport, Mississippi, where it remained until July 3d, 1865, when it was ordered back to Nashville, Tennessee. Then to Decatur, Alabama. Then marched, with General Hatch's expedition, to Montgomery, Alabama, where it arrived July 25th, 1865, and remained until the last of August, when it moved to Demopolis, Alabama, remaining there 6 days. The Regiment was then divided—6 companies to remain, and 6 to march back to Montgomery. Remained there until the last of September, 1865, when the 6 companies at Montgomery were divided into detachments. Two companies marched to Opelika, Alabama, 1 company to Tuskega, and the other 3 remained at Montgomery.

November 1st, 1865, Regiment was ordered to march to Selma, Alabama, to be mustered out of service.

Mustered out November 5th, 1865, and ordered to Springfield, Illinois, for final payment and discharge, where it arrived November 17th, and received discharge, November 20th, 1865.

HISTORY OF EIGHTH CAVALRY.

The Eighth Cavalry Regiment was organized at St. Charles, Illinois, in September, 1861, by Colonel J. F. Farnsworth, and was mustered in September 18th, 1861.

On October 13th, the Regiment moved to Washington City, and camped at Meridian Hill on the 17th. On December 17th, moved to camp near Alexandria, Virginia. March 10th, 1862, the Regiment joined the general advance on Manassas, in General Sumner's Division. The Eighth Cavalry remained at Warrenton until April 12th—at four different times driving the enemy across the Rappahannock. Embarked at Alexandria, on April 23d, and landed at Shipping Point, May 1st. May 4th, moved to Williamsburg, and was assigned to the Light Brigade, General Stoneman commanding. The Regiment was engaged during the advance of the army up the Peninsula.

On June 26th, six companies of the Regiment met the advance of the enemy, under Jackson, at Mechanicsville, and held it in check until three o'clock in the afternoon, when their line was driven back to the infantry lines.

The Regiment did important duty, in the change of base which followed this action, at Gaines' Hill, Dispatch Station and Malvern Hill, and, covering the extreme rear of the army, continually skirmished with the enemy's cavalry. Remained on picket, on the James river, while the army lay at Harrison's Landing. Led the advance to the second occupation of Malvern Hills, and, with Benson's Battery (United States Artillery), bore the brunt of the fight—Lieutenant Colonel Gamble being severely wounded. Brought up the rear of our retreating army to Barrett's Ford, on the Chickahominy.

On August 30th, 1862, embarked at Yorktown, and landed at Alexandria on September 1st, and moved immediately to the front. On the 4th, crossed into Maryland, and was engaged at Poolsville. Captured the colors of the Twelfth Virginia (rebel) Cavalry at Monocacy Church. Captured 20 prisoners at Barnesville. Engaged at Sugar Loaf Mountain, Middletown and South Mountain, and, at Boonesboro, captured 2 guns, killing and wounding 67, and taking 200 prisoners.

The Eighth Cavalry was engaged at the battle of Antietam.

On October 1st, had a severe fight with the enemy, during a reconnoissance to Martinsburg.

Moved in advance of the Army of the Potomac, and was engaged with the enemy's cavalry at Philemonte, Uniontown, Upperville, Barbee's Cross Roads, Little Washington and Amesville, arriving at Falmouth, November 23d, 1862. During the battle of Fredericksburg. December 13th, two squadrons were in the city till its evacuation. The Eighth was on picket until February 17th, 1863, on the left flank of the army, across the Peninsula, and up the Rappahannock, to Port Conway, when it was moved to the right flank, near Dumfries. Loss, up to this time, 27 killed, 71 wounded, and 20 missing.

During the campaign of 1863, the Regiment was engaged in the following actions :

Sulphur Spring-, April 14th ; near Warrentown, April 17th ; Rapidan Station, May 1st ; Northern Neck, May 14th ; Betty's Ford, June 9th ; Upperville, June 21st ; Fairville, Pennsylvania, June 30th ; Gettysburg, July 1st ; Williamsburg, Maryland, July 6th ; Boonsboro, July 8th ; Funktown, July 10th ; Falling Water, July 14th ; Chester Gap, July 21st ; Sandy Hook, July 22d ; near Culpepper, August 1st ; Brandy Station, August 4th ; Raid from Dumfries to Falmouth, August 30th ; Culpepper and Pony Mountain, September 13th ; Raccoon Ford, September 13th ; Liberty Mills, September 21st ; Raccoon Ford to Brandy Station, October 11th ; Manassas, October 15th ; Warrentown Junction, October 30th ; Rixleysville, November 8th ; Mitchell's Station, November 12th ; Ely's Ford, November 30th, 1863

Loss, during the campaign, 23 killed, 116 wounded, and 37 missing.

The Regiment was mustered out of service at Benton Barracks, Missouri, July 17th, 1865, and ordered to Chicago, Illinois, where it received final payment and discharge.

HISTORY OF NINTH CAVALRY.

The Ninth Cavalry Regiment was organized at Chicago, Illinois, in November, 1861, by Colonel A. G. Brackett, and was mustered in November 30th.

On February 17th, 1862, moved to Benton Barracks, Missouri, and, thence, to Pilot Knob. On 27th, marched to Reeves' Station, on Big Black, and was assigned, by Brigadier General F. Steele, to Third Brigade.

On May 23d, Steele's Division joined General Curtis' army, at Jacksonport, Arkansas. In a skirmish at Waddell's Plantation, June 12th, lost 12 wounded and 1 missing, and at Stewart's Plantation, on June 27th, lost 2 killed and 35 wounded. Among the latter were Colonel Brackett, Adjutant Blackburn, and Captain Knight.

June 26th, commenced the march to Helena. During this march, 5 men died from hardships—water and rations being almost impossible to obtain.

At Helena, the Ninth Cavalry was assigned to Third Brigade, Colonel Cyrus Bussey; Fourth Division, Brigadier General A. P. Hovey; General Steele's Army; District of Eastern Arkansas.

On September 15th, two 12-pdr. mountain howitzers were assigned to the Regiment, and were commanded by Lieutenant E. G. Butler, with a detail from the Regiment. On November 7th, at Lagrange, Lieutenant Butler repulsed a charge of 2 regiments of Texan Rangers, killing over 50 of the enemy. Its loss was 20 killed and wounded. The Regiment went on an expedition under General Washburn, and was engaged, November 6th, at Okolona, Mississippi, and near Coffeeville, November 7th.

January 9th, 1863, marched, with General Gorman, to Duvall's Bluff, and returned. On April 7th, moved to Memphis, and, on 12th, moved to Germantown, Tennessee. Was assigned to Brigade of Colonel McCrillis, of Third Illinois Cavalry, and to the Sixteenth Corps. Engaged at Coldwater, Mississippi, July 28th, and at Granada, August 18th, and moved to Lagrange, Tennessee, August 26th. Made an attack on the enemy at Salem, Mississippi, October 8th, and drove him from his position. Met the enemy at Wyatt, Mississippi, October 13th, and, after fighting all day, the enemy fell back and retreated in the night.

November 8th, moved from Lagrange to Corinth, and soon after returned. Marched to Collierville, and was assigned to Second Brigade, Cavalry Division, Sixteenth Army Corps. Was engaged with the enemy, December 3d, 1863, at Saulsbury, Tennessee, and, on the 4th, the Division, under command of Brigadier General B. H. Grierson, was engaged at Moscow, Tennessee. In this battle the Ninth Cavalry took a conspicuous and honorable part.

On February 11th, 1864, marched, with the expeditions of Brigadier General B. H. Grierson, and General W. S. Smith, into Mississippi. Met and defeated the enemy at West Point, February 20th. Was engaged at Okolona, February 21st, and at Mount Ivy, Mississippi, on the 23d, and camped at Germantown, on 24th. On March 16th, the Regiment was mustered as a veteran organization, and, on 17th, marched to Memphis. Moved to Illinois, for veteran furlough.

April 27th, returned to Memphis. A detachment of the Regiment was with 'General Sturgis, on the expedition to Guntown, Mississippi, and was rear guard for the disorganized command on the retreat, losing 5 killed, 23 wounded, and 12 prisoners, out of 160 men.

July 7th, marched, with Generals A. J. Smith and Grierson, to Tupelo. Had a severe engagement at Pontatoc, driving the enemy, and was engaged in the two days' battle, July 14th and 15th, at Tupelo and Old Town Creek.

On August 3d, moved, via Holly Springs, to Abbeville, Mississippi, where it skirmished with the enemy. On the 11th, skirmished at Oxford. Had an engagement at Hurricane Creek, Mississippi, August 13th, losing 4 killed, and several wounded. Returned to camp, near Memphis, September 4th.

On September 30th, 1864, moved eastward, Captain Blackburn commanding Regiment. Crossed Tennessee river at Clifton. Moved, via Waynesboro, Lawrenceburg, Florence, Alabama, Waterloo, Hamburg and Savannah, to Clifton. The command moved again to Florence, and met Hood's advancing army. General Hatch's Division did hard fighting at Shoal creek. On November 19th, crossed the river and attacked the enemy—the Ninth Cavalry in advance. Two divisions of the enemy advancing, compelled it to re-cross the river. One Battalion of the Regiment becoming detached, passed through the rebel line, and was compelled to remain in the enemy's rear until night, when it re-crossed.

The command skirmished with the enemy's advance every day. At Campbellville, November 24th, the Regiment was very hotly engaged, but stood their ground, holding back many times their number, until their ammunition was entirely exhausted, when they fought hand to hand, clubbing their carbines. Took a prominent part in the battle of Franklin, Tennessee, and the two days' fight, December 15th and 16th, at Nashville.

Engaged in the pursuit of Hood, to Tennessee river, skirmishing at Brentwood, Franklin pike, near Franklin, Rutherford's Creek, and at Ross' farm.

The command moved to Huntsville, Florence, Eastport and Gravelly Springs. On February 9th, 1865, moved to Eastport. On June 23d, to Iuka, Mississippi. July 4th, moved to Decatur, Alabama, and thence to Montgomery, Selma, and, finally, to Gainesville, Alabama, arriving August 20th.

Mustered out at Selma, Alabama, October 31st, 1865, and ordered to Springfield, Illinois, where it received final payment and discharge.

HISTORY OF THIRTEENTH CAVALRY.

The Thirteenth Cavalry Regiment was organized at Camp Douglas, Illinois, in December, 1861, by Colonel J. W. Bell.

Moved to Benton Barracks, Missouri, where the Regiment was armed and equipped. Moved for the field, in February, 1862. Was on duty in South-east Missouri until June 1st, 1862, when it joined General Curtis' army, at Jacksonport, Arkansas. Moved, with General Curtis, through Arkansas, taking part in the skirmishes of the campaign, to Helena, Arkansas. Returned, with General Curtis, to Missouri, in the fall of 1862, and was engaged with General Davidson, in the campaign of South-west Missouri and North-west Arkansas, driving Marmaduke and his command from the state.

In July, 1863, the Regiment moved, with General Davidson's Cavalry Division, into Arkansas, taking part in the battles of Brownsville, August 24th and 25th; Bayou Metre, 27th and 28th; Austin, August 31st; and again at Bayou Metre, September 4th. The Thirteenth was the first Regiment to enter Little Rock, on its capture, September 10th, 1863, and was engaged in the pursuit of Price, to Red River.

In the spring of 1864, the Regiment accompanied General Steele in the expedition to Camden, taking prominent parts in the actions at Arkadelphia, Okolona, Little Missouri River, Prairie du Anne, Camden and Jenkins' Ferry, during the month of April.

After returning to Little Rock, the Regiment was engaged in many raids and scouts, and in skirmishing with the forces of Shelby and Marmaduke, defeating them at Clarendon and Pine Bluff. In the summer of 1864, the Regiment was stationed at Pine Bluff, in Colonel Clayton's Brigade, and engaged in scouting and picketing.

On January 25th, 1865, the Cavalry Division having been discontinued, the Regiment was assigned to duty at the post of Pine Bluff. In April, detachments of the Regiment were sent to take possession of Monticello, Camden and Washington, leaving Headquarters at Pine Bluff.

Mustered out August 31st, 1865, and received final pay and discharge at Springfield, Illinois, September 13th, 1865.

HISTORY OF SEVENTEENTH CAVALRY.

The Seventeenth Cavalry Regiment Illinois Volunteers was organized under special authority from the War Department, issued August 12th, 1863, to Hon. John F. Farnsworth. The rendezvous was established at St. Charles, Kane county, Illinois. By the approval of the governor of the state, the Colonelcy of the Regiment was offered to John L. Beveridge, then Major in the Eighth Illinois Cavalry, who assumed the work of recruitment and organization, and opened the rendezvous November 15th, 1863. Eight companies were mustered in January 22d, 1864. Four other companies were mustered in and the organization of the Regiment completed, February 12th, 1864.

By the close of April next, 650 horses had been bought in by the men, under instructions from the Cavalry Bureau, and sold to the Government.

May 3d, 1864, the Regiment moved, under orders from the General-in-Chief, to report to Major General Rosecrans, commanding the Department of Missouri, at St. Louis, Missouri.

The Regiment was sent to Jefferson Barracks, Missouri, where 1100 sets of horse equipments were received. From there it moved to Alton, Illinois, and relieved the Thirteenth Illinois Cavalry in guarding the Military Prison at that place. For this purpose 500 muskets were drawn from the arsenal.

Early in June, following, the First Battalion was ordered to St. Louis, and the Second Battalion followed immediately. Both being fully mounted, were ordered at once to North Missouri District.

The First Battalion, Lieutenant Colonel Dennis J. Hynes commanding, proceeded to St. Joseph, Missouri, where the commanding officer reported in person to General Fisk, commanding District of North Missouri.

The Second Battalion, Major Lucius C. Matlack commanding, was assigned by General C. B. Fisk to the post of Glasgow, Missouri.

From this period, for four months, the three battalions were separate and remote from each other. Their history will be most fitly given in separate narratives, extending over the time intervening and up to the time of re-union with the regimental headquarters.

OF THE FIRST BATTALION.

Lieutenant Colonel Hynes, being detailed as Chief of Cavalry, and attached to General Fisk's staff, the first squadron (companies A and B), under Major H. Hilliard, was ordered to Weston, Missouri. The second squadron (companies C and D), was ordered to remain at St. Joseph, Missouri, Captain J. D. Butts in command.

The duties of the battalions were mainly escort and provost guard duties, for three months; not always at the same localities, yet always within the District of North Missouri.

In September, 1864, the invasion of Missouri, by Price's army of rebels, increased the responsibility of their work, by the increased restlessness of the rebel sympathisers around them; but no actual conflict with the enemy occurred in that district.

Late in September, the second squadron (companies C and D), commanded by Captain Jones, was moved over the country to Jefferson City, Missouri, and took part in the defense of the city, October 6th and 7th, 1864.

The first squadron (companies A and B) remained in North Missouri, during the winter, and joined the Regiment in June, 1865. Lieutenant Colonel Hynes and Major Hilliard had been ordered to the Regiment, in February and March, preceeding, while the Headquarters was at Pilot Knob, Missouri.

OF THE SECOND BATTALION.

From July, 1864, for three months, Major Matlack, with the Battalion (companies E, F, G and H), occupied the post of Glasgow. This was adjacent to the strongholds of numerous guerrilla bands, whose influence with rebel sympathisers, and their inroads upon the loyal inhabitants and interruptions of United States telegraph lines, required scouting parties constantly on the road for a distance of from 30 to 60 miles. Threatened attacks upon the post and actual assaults upon the out-posts kept the entire detachment busy, day and night.

Parties were sent out, under orders from General Douglas, commanding Eighth Sub-District, District of North Missouri, to remote points, and frequent fights ensued. In every instance but one—when a score of the Seventeenth men fought five times their number—their success in punishing the enemy was decided, yet not without the loss of a few killed and wounded. Among these fights may be named one near Allen, on the North Missouri Railroad, in July, 1864; one near the Porsche Hills; and a third near Rocheport. None of these demand a more extended notice.

The reported presence of the rebel Colonel Thornton, with 1500 men, induced an order from General Rosecrans, through General Fisk, for a movement from Glasgow, northward and westward, in search of Thornton. Pursuant thereto, Major Matlack moved, with all his mounted force and a squadron of the Ninth Cavalry, Missouri State Militia, to Chillicothe, on the Hannibal and St. Joseph Railroad. Here, re-enforced by 500 militia, the column was divided into three detachments, and thoroughly scoured the whole country, from the railroad, southward and westward, to the river. No enemy was found, but the presence of the troops reassured the Union men of that country, and held their enemies in check. The distance traveled was 300 miles.

In September, 1864, the Second Battalion was ordered to move over the country, and report to General McNeil, commanding District of Rolla, at Rolla, Missouri. It reached there, September 23d, and joined the Regiment—with which its movements are thenceforward identified—traveling 125 miles.

OF THE THIRD BATTALION.

From July, 1864, until late in August, of the same year, this Battalion, with Regimental Headquarters, remained at Alton, Illinois. Being removed to Benton Barracks, and fully mounted, it was ordered, early in September, to Glasgow, Missouri, but at Jefferson City their destination was changed, and Colonel John L. Beveridge, commander, reported to General John McNeil, at Rolla, September 19th, 1864, with the Battalion. Here commenced an active and vigorous campaign, in which the movements of the Regiment were a unit.

When all communications between Rolla and St. Louis were interrupted by Price's army, and General Ewing's small force had retired from Pilot Knob, after a brave resistance, Colonel Beveridge, with the Seventeenth, by order of General McNeil, moved out at noon, September 28th, and, driving a cavalry force which appeared near Cuba, reached Leesburg the day following—33 miles distant—and saved General Ewing, with Colonel Fletcher (since Governor of Missouri) and their 700 men, from imminent peril of capture, and covered their return to Rolla, Missouri.

Early in October, the Regiment moved from Rolla—a part of McNeil's brigade—towards Jefferson City, reaching there in time to aid in constructing defenses and in repelling the attack of Price, October 6th and 7th.

The day following, General Pleasanton arrived from St. Louis, and organized the entire force—four thousand—as a Cavalry Division, under General Sanborn. Colonel Beveridge was placed in command of the Second Brigade, which included the Seventeenth Illinois Cavalry and the Third, Fifth and Ninth Missouri State Militia Cavalry.

Major Matlack commanded the Seventeenth, which took part in the attack made on Price, at Boonville, October 11th, and which induced an early evacuation of that point by the rebels.

At Independence, the Seventeenth dismounted, was deployed on the left, and in support of the Thirteenth Missouri Cavalry, when the rear-guard of the enemy was attacked and their artillery captured. This was October 22d, 1864. Same day, at midnight, the Brigade left Independence, in the direction of Hickman's Mills, 12 miles distant, where the enemy was intercepted the next day, about noon. While the main column of the Brigade, under General McNeil, attacked near the head of the rebel column, the Seventeenth, Colonel Beveridge commanding, was ordered to form a separate column, and strike the enemy on the flank, one mile or more in the rear. By a rapid movement their flank was reached, but at a moment preceding an attack, which must have been a success, peremptory orders were received to return and support the battery in front. Two days after this, the Division, now under General Pleasanton's immediate orders, captured Major General Marmaduke, Brigadier General Cabel, ten rebel cannon, and more than a thousand prisoners, with their arms, at Mine Creek, Kansas, having moved 70 miles within twenty-four hours.

The Seventeenth, with McNeil's Brigade, was hurried forward in pursuit of the retreating foe. Three times the pursuers formed in line of battle, but only in the last case did the enemy maintain his ground. Then the rebels had chosen their ground on an open prairie, and were quietly waiting the approach of the Union forces—a Brigade, now thinned down to 1500 men, moving up to attack 15,000! Every man of this little band could see, and was seen by every man of the rebel army. The Seventeenth was made the guide for the whole line, of which it was the left. After a short, sharp engagement, and an attempt by the rebels to overwhelm its right, which was prevented by the arrival of two guns, which checked the rebels, an order came from General Pleasanton to charge along the whole line. After some delay, the command "forward" was given, and away went the Seventeenth boys. With only three hundred men, they pushed up in the face of the enemy, who moved off at their approach, while the Centre and Right were full half a mile in the rear. This was October 25th, 1864, and occurred in the vicinity of Fort Scott. The lack of forage and the rapid marching caused the loss of more than half their horses, and hundreds of miles were traversed, by some of the Seventeenth, on foot.

The escape of the rebels over the Arkansas line was followed by the return of the Brigade to Springfield, Missouri, 180 miles. Here orders from Headquarters directed its return south-west to Cassville, Missouri, thence back to Rolla, Missouri, 180 miles, which was reached by November 15th, 1864. During the 43 days intervening, the Regiment had marched over 1000 miles, and suffered the loss of 600 horses.

In January, 1865, the Seventeenth was ordered to Pilot Knob, Missouri. After being re-mounted it was ordered to Cape Girardeau, Missouri, in April.

Colonel Beveridge was now breveted Brigadier General, and in command of sub-District No. 2, of St. Louis District. Lieutenant Colonel Hynes commanded the Regiment.

A threatened attack on the Union lines was rumored abroad. An expedition was sent out, comprising the Seventeenth and some Missouri Artillery, commanded by Lieutenant Colonel Hynes, late in April, but no enemy was found.

The week following, the Seventeenth accompanied commissioners from Department Headquarters, with a flag of truce, who reached General Jeff. Thompson, and arranged terms and places for the capitulation of his forces.

From Cape Girardeau the Regiment was ordered to Kansas, and occupied detached posts along the plains; whence they returned, to be mustered out, in November and December, 1865, at Leavenworth, Kansas.

Their last important work was that of a detachment, accompanying the commissioners, who went to Fort Smith to treat with the Indians, at the great council held in September, 1865.

The service of the Regiment has been wholly within the Department of the Missouri. commanded, respectively, by Generals Rosecrans, Dodge and Pope.

HISTORY OF BATTERIES A, E, F, H, K, L, M, SECOND ARTILLERY.

COMPANY A.

Battery A, Second Illinois Light Artillery, was organized at Peoria, Illinois, by Captain Peter Davidson, and was mustered into state service, May 23d, 1861.

Moved to Alton, Illinois, in July, 1861. Thence moved to St. Charles, Missouri, with General Pope, and, thence, to Mexico, Missouri. From this place, sections were sent to different parts of North Missouri, which were again united at Jefferson Barracks, Missouri, at which place the Battery was mustered into United States' service, August 17th, 1861.

Moved to Jefferson City, Missouri, and, October 1st, to Booneville, Missouri, and thence, to Otterville. Thence, marched, in Kelton's Brigade, Pope's Division of Fremont's army, to Springfield, Missouri, and returned to Otterville. January 25th, 1862, in Colonel Julius White's Brigade, Brigadier General Jeff. C. Davis' Division, moved to Lebanon, and, with Curtis' army, to North-west Arkansas. Was engaged in the battle of Pea Ridge, March 7th and 8th, where it did faithful and brilliant service. A section of the Battery did good service at Neosho and Fayetteville. Moved to Helena, Arkansas, with General Curtis' Army.

Battery A, was mustered out of service at Camp Butler, Illinois, July 27th, 1865.

COMPANY E.

Battery E, Second Illinois Light Artillery, was organized at St. Louis, Missouri, in August, 1861, by Captain Adolph Schwartz, and was mustered into service, August 20th, at St. Louis Arsenal.

One section of the Battery, Lieutenant Hanger commanding, moved, September 6th, to North Missouri, and had an engagement with the enemy at Liberty, September 17th, and returned to Cairo, Illinois, December 29th, 1861.

The Battery, Lieutenant Gumbart commanding, moved to Cairo, September 14th; moved to Fort Holt and Jefferson, Kentucky, and then returned to Cairo. On November 1st, Lieutenant Gumbart's section went on an expedition to Bloomfield, Missouri, and, January 9th, 1862, to Columbus, Kentucky, and returned.

On February 1st, 1862, the Battery, Lieutenant Gumbart commanding, moved to Fort Henry, and, on 13th, arrived before Fort Donelson. On 14th, held position on the right with Colonel Oglesby's Brigade. On the morning of the 15th, Lieutenant Gumbart was severely wounded, and Lieutenant Nispel took command. The enemy charged upon the hill, upon which the Battery was stationed, three times, but were repulsed.
